458 STORE CATTLE

Auctioneer – Llŷr Jones 07812934964

Elwyn Thomas 07989850307 &

Dafydd Waters 07908809381

Another strong entry of stores this week as we see a younger show in general despite the older “meat” cattle breaking new records to highs of £3140 for a 33 month old Angus steer from Mills Graig farm. Further Angus steers sold to £2880 for a 25-month-old from the regular entry of Williams Trelewyd. Strong simmies to £2700 from Rees Coynant and Charolais to £2680 from the same vendor. Dairy bred blues to £2670 from John Dyllcoed whilst more strength sold to £2580 from Jones Ty Llwyd.

Endless run of the strongest over £2200 with the younger cattle off the clock to highs of 612.2ppk or £1500 for 10-month-old pure Charolais from Thomas Beili Glas.

Heifers just as dear to highs of £3050 for a 31-month-old limmie from Rees Coynant with a super bunch of 6 blue x salers heifers from Jenkins Moc selling to £2200 with fleshy dairy bred blues to £2210 from Mills Graig. Meaty Friesian heifers to £2200 from Williams Trelewyd with endless of the biggest sorts once again over £2000.

A cracking run of 11–13-month pure lime heifers from Davies Gwelyrhaul, found future breeders with a remarkable high of £2020 or 580.6ppk. 12-month-old pure Charolais heifers to £1220 or 508.3ppk from Thomas Beili Glas with all types and sizes tremendously sold. Feeding bulls remaining to trade at hot paces to £2400 for a 18-month-old Welsh Black from Evans Nantymoch and 23-month-old Charolais to £2310 from Howells LLety Wilws. Young 13-month-old bulls to £2180 from Hemmings Pantyclai with suckler bred 11-month-old to £2120 from Davies Glancarw.

Cattle remain in hot demand with another big entry required next Friday please to satisfy our faithful cohort of buyers!!
