61 DAIRY

Auctioneer – Llŷr Jones 07812934964

A real buzz at Carmarthen dairy centre this week which included the Holstein South Wales Summer Scorchers show and sale. A very special line up entered in the catalogue with some fantastic pedigree animals. Judge of the day Mr Dyfrig Davies, Gwndwn New Inn had a tough task with three strong classes along with a very high quality overall champion class. Overall champion was awarded to the senior heifer 'Tydal Harper Butterfly' (VG86 2 yr old) exhibited and owned by Richard Lewis, Fronun. She drew a lot of interest in the sale ring and the hammer finally fell at £3400, and she joined the judge at the Gwndwn herd. Reserve champion was awarded to again to Lewis, Fronun for a homebred heifer lot 15 'Fronun Cordial Wendy', a powerful black heifer found a new home at £2820 and joined the herd with Gibbon, Fferm Y Garreg. All four heifers from Richard Lewis averaged an impressive £2940. Trade did live up to the shows name with scorching prices on all cattle. 12 heifers selling over £2500 and all twenty fresh heifers averaging £2395.61.

2nd calver from Iscoed farms topped the cows at £2200, with a 4th calver from Jones, Garreg Goch Ganol looking good money at £2120.

Bulling heifers were arguably just as dear as the milking section with Richards, Penhill Farm showing a fantastic run of well-bred pedigree heifers from their Richley herd. Top of the day sold for £1550 for 'Richley Art Glenys' which went back to the Stilbrook Glenys family. All bulling heifers levelled at an impressive £1115. In calf heifers found highs of £1300 for 'Hanford Galahad Betsy' from Davies, Glancarw, with others reaching £1000 from Jones & Sons, Brynbanal Farm. 3 heifer calves from James, Hafod Banc y Ffordd sold to £220 twice.

A big Thankyou to Holstein South Wales for their kind instructions to hold the sale on their behalf. Also Thankyou to our judge of the day Mr Dyfrig Davies for his time and good work, Prostock Vets for sponsoring the show and to all our vendors, buyers and staff for making a very successful day!
