57 DAIRY

Auctioneer – Llyr Jones 07812934964

A reduced entry with several vendors unsure of the trade and holding out until next week's HSW Show & Sale. For the 39 fresh that turned up a much better than anticipated trade with more buyers ringside compared to previous weeks. Those better end high yielding heifers up a notch and back to where they should be this week. G Williams showed two tremendous heifers giving 34-38kg a day and flew to highs of £2450. Two more heifers over the 2k barrier and a pile trading from £1700 upwards this week with all heifers averaging just shy of £1700.

A 4th calver from Morgan, Mead Lodge giving over 40litre a day sold to £1850. Two more cows at £1700, with cows averaging out at £1650.

The in-calf trade continued to where it left off last week, with pedigree heifers from the 'Glanrhos' herd selling all to one buyer from £1280-£1450. Bullers from the same home topped at £720 three times with a heifer calf from Richards, Mount Farm looking well sold at £220. Show and Sale week next Wednesday, entries into the mart office and ask to speak to Rosie! We wish our dairy secretary Elen all the best calving her third, Pob lwc Elen!
