A very large entry of calves forward with most of them being from spring calving dairy herds. However, there were good sorts in the mixer too with the stronger end topping at £505 for a Simmental bull calf from Jones, Ffynonlwyd. Another from the same home sold to £475 with blue bulls topping at £445 from Iscoed Farms. Endless amounts of blues in excess of £400 with a good advert for the native calves seeing a strong angus bull from Gibbon, Fferm y Garreg reaching £360. Premium certainly paid for better reared sorts with natives proving to be on fire through the live ring. A consistent trade was seen in the heifer section where Lim heifers sold to £290 from Davies, Felindre whilst blue heifers topped at £285, once again from Gibbon, Fferm y Garreg.

More of the same required each week at Carmarthen please!
