A fantastic day in the dairy ring with all sections well represented. The morning kicked off with a special entry of crossbred and Friesian calves from M D M Farms, these being mainly February and March 2025 born. Friesian types reached £720 with others to £680. Crossbred calves looked well sold at £650 with several groups at £600 and over. 4-week-old heifer calves from M T & E R Davies and Sons sold to £460. Over 50 in the fresh section which would be harder work at times but in all honesty a very good trade. Heifers reached £3500 for a heifer calved 2 weeks ago from R J Rees with a strong heifer from G Williams also making it to £3500. B B' farms sold their best to £3450 with plenty of fresh heifers £3500 and over. Endless runs over £2500 with all heifers levelling out at £2721.90. D G & R P Lewis continued the dispersal of their cows selling to highs of £2900. Panteg farm LTD sold 2nd and 3rd calver from £2550 up to £2800 with all six cows averaging £2700.

In calf heifers leaped to £2720 for a heifer calving in 3 months from R E Lewis & Son who sold others to £2520. Bulling heifers sold to highs of £1950 from W A Jones & Co who sold another 3 at £1680. A big thanks to everyone for your support this Wednesday. Diolch yn fawr.

We look forward to the Show and Sale next Wednesday to include a SPECIAL ENTRY on behalf of G & J Williams, Penygenhill of 50 In-calf heifers calving August onwards.
