72 COWS & CALVES & BREEDING HEIFERS

Auctioneer – Llyr Jones 07812934964

57 pairs of cows and calves in this month's famous breeding sale, which was more than catalogued. All units meeting a very strong trade throughout and arguably dearer than last months sale. BRBx 1st calvers with a show potential calf from Davies bros sold to high of £3850 with AA heifer and a Limmie x calf from the same home to £3450. Lim 1st calver with a bull calf from G D T James and sons sold to £3250 with Angus 2nd calver and her lim x calf from K J Marshall sold to £3100. Endless runs of cows and calves from £2500-£3000 with plainer sorts back at either side of £2000.

Bulling heifers from D Evans sold to £1880 for limmie & BRBx heifers with a group of Aberdeen Angus heifers from J Pellow selling to £1550. A number of farmers looking for bullers every month as we see more and more eager buyers returning to suckler cows possibly?

A big thanks for your continued support, with the breeding cattle section here at Carmarthen becoming a very popular on!! Diolch yn fawr.

Another strong entry of weaned forward this month again with probably less suckler bred and more dairy bred sorts on offer! However, the best suckler bred Charolais steers on the day topped at £1590 from Samuel, Cen Coed Isaf. Dairy bred Blue steers sold to £1520 from Johns, Morfa Melyn with more suckler bred Charolais steers to £1510 from Charles, Aberglywydeth. Lim steers top at £1510 from Devonald, Brengast whilst Beef Shorthorn steers top at £1500 from Thomas, drysgolgoch. Endless run of steers trading in excess of £1300 with the young 5–6-month dairy bred sorts easily sold up to £1200. It was just as good on the heifers with suckler bred Lim heifers topping at £1540 from Leyshon, Cefnfaes with Stabiliser heifers from the same home selling to £1440. Young 5–6-month-old Blue heifers trade of the day either side of £1000 with all breeds and sizes in high demand once again this month! Another big entry required next month please!
