

CARMARTHEN LIVESTOCK MART WEEKLY REPORT – 07/07/25

118 COWS & CALVES

Auctioneer – Llyr Jones 07812934964

A tremendous entry of cows and calves, the biggest entry since we re-opened in 2022!! Numbers drew the buyers with 113 cows and calves changing homes out of 118! A very satisfying day with trade being very consistent throughout!! G J Williams topped the section twice for Lim x BRB heifer with smart Lim x calves at foot selling at £4600 and £4000. J D & S C Edwards showed a wonderful entry of 2nd and 3rd calvers with his pick of the bunch being a AAX 2nd calver and Lim x calf at foot selling to £3400. BRB dairy bred 1st calver from D I & S Lloyd sold next at £3300 with aged pedigree lim outfits from the Glencross herd selling at £3150 and £3100. E & S Thomas sold their Charolais x cow and simmie calf at £3100 with strong Aberdeen Angus cows and Lim calves from H Rees sold to £3050. Endless outfits from £2800-£3000 with plainer lighter sorts around the £2000 mark. A superb day in the cow and calf section with all outfits nearing the £2500 average overall! A big thank you for your support and a big entry is required for our next monthly cow and calf sale in August. Get your entries in early for the SALE CATALOGUE. Diolch yn fawr!!

A cracking entry once again as we enter July with both dairy and suckler bred in high demand from start to finish! Topping the steers with a quality young show potential Blue steer at £1700 was the Davies family of Glanyfer. Angus steers reached £1690 from Pellow, Burry Port with Herefords to £1550 from Lloyd, Cwmsoar. Suckler bred Charolais steers to £1510 from Harries, Llwynfron with dairy bred Blue steers to £1500 from Hughes, Glanrhyd Saeson. Endless runs of 9–11-month-old dairy bred steers trading in excess of £1300 on the day with younger and smaller sorts looking just as dear with some 3-month-old Hereford steers making £850s. Heifers just as well sold to highs of £1930 for a thick shapely Lim heifer from Davies, Bachyrhew with another from the same home at £1780. Suckler bred Charolais heifers meeting good demand to £1310 from Harries, Llwynfron with once again all types and sizes in good order! Best of the dairy bred heifers saw 8-month-old Blues to £1260 from the regular entry of Johns, Morfa Melyn. All grades of cattle wanted going forward in to next month's sale.
