

NEWCASTLE EMLYN LIVESTOCK MART

WEEKLY REPORT – 17.07.25

434 NEW SEASON LAMBS (328.25avg /kg)

A few less numbers on the week but definitely more cover on the lambs today which is ESSENTIAL to reach full premium. Heavy lambs continue to be the order of the day, Although those standard and medium weights more money on the week. 5 different buyers on lambs this week with 45kg from B E Phillips sailing to £163 or 362.0ppk. 47kg from J O Evans & Co sold at 352ppk with same weights from A Davies selling at 351ppk. 37.5kg from E Parry topped the lighter end at 355ppk. Plenty in the 340-350 bracket with hill bred or leaner continental lambs anywhere from 300-320ppk. A H Davies and D A & T A L George both topped the section selling heavies to high of £170.

PLEASE NOTE: New start time of 11.00am from next Thursday onwards. ALL SHEEP to be penned by 10.30am!! Thanks for your cooperation.

211 CULL EWES & RAMS

A quality run of ewes forward here in the alleys this week at Emlyn with once again very strong bidding competition on all types from start to finish! Topping the day with quality Texel ewes was Davies, Lloyd Jack with more of the same type to £193 from Parry, Lochland. Big Suffolk ewes from Evans, Bronwydd to £180 with more from the same home to £175 x 2. Well meated continental ewes from Evans, Pantirion to £180 with Webb, Cefn's entry topping at £179. Endless run of the strongest ewes over £160 on the day with the rams topping at £155 from Kimberley, Troedyrur. Endless run of the lean continental ewes well sold between £145 and £155 with Easycare ewes up to £142 from Ffosyficer Ltd. Real lean sorts probably looking dearer on the week where more could have easily been sold to vendor advantage! Business as usual next Thursday with a new sale time of 11AM to commence from Thursday 24th July onwards.
