

NEWCASTLE EMLYN LIVESTOCK MART WEEKLY REPORT – 31.07.25

293 NEW SEASON LAMBS (336.98avg /kg)

A disappointing number of lambs forward and many more could have been sold to vendor's advantage. What was missing in numbers was made up in quality with a very consistent trade for all weight categories. 36kg Texels from S Smithson sold to high of 357ppk with lights from C L Dugdale topped at 344ppk for 32kg. 42kg from D Thomas sold to 335ppk with plenty from 350-354ppk. Heavy lambs £150-£160 with E G & A Evans getting 49-50kg Texels to top the whole section at £168.

190 CULL EWES & RAMS

A stand on in the cull section this week as we see the best continental ewes up to £190 from Evans Pantirion, strong Suffolk ewes to £189 from James Blaenesger and Texels to £182 from Griffiths Y Glyn. A good run of well meated mule and continental ewes from Evans Nantygwyddau reached £182 and £179 with Williams Cwmbran's entry topping at £175. Those lean ewes continue to look tremendously sold at £130-£150 whilst the strongest hill bred ewes knocking the door of these barriers. All grades of ewes wanted every Thursday at Emlyn, Diolch.
