

NEWCASTLE EMLYN LIVESTOCK MART WEEKLY REPORT – 11.02.25

128 BARREN COWS

More numbers going into February with the current trade definitely bringing the cattle numbers to market!

A very fiery trade throughout with meat selling to highs of £2220 and £2200 for tremendous suckler bred Angus cattle from M W Davies & C Jones. Dairy bred Angus to £1880 from J D & E Phillips with out wintered Sim x steer from E H & J Jones selling to £1820. Plenty over the £1600 with Fleckvieh steers looking well sold at £1500 again from J D & E Phillips. 18-month-old angus topped the heifer section at £1940 and £1910 with Charolais heifer from C I G & N S Rees looking well sold at £1890. Limmies from the same home to £1720 with a run of younger heifers finding new homes at £1600-£1700.

A big thanks to all vendors for your continued support with Emlyn proving to be very competitive for all types of cattle.

Only one barren cow this week with a super Charolais cow at 700kg selling to 265ppk or £1855 from C M & A R Griffiths.

More TB tested cows needed in two weeks' time!!
