

NEWCASTLE EMLYN LIVESTOCK MART WEEKLY REPORT – 14.01.25

51 BARREN COWS & OTM'S

Dammand out stripping supply with a very fast and furious start to 2025 at Newcastle Emlyn Tuesday sales. Two cows started the day off with P Welch getting 750kg Angus to 227ppk and £1702.50 with leaner Sim cow from A Evans selling at 178ppk and £1281.60.

Store cattle an absolute flyer from the off where we saw 6-month-old Sim steers selling to £890 from A Evans. Older steers topped the day at £1830 for 22-month-old Charolais from R N Jukes. Angus from the same home to £1730 with 15-month-old Angus from J D & E Phillips selling at £1690. 19-month-old Lim steer sold to £1450 from D R Davies. Monty steers to £1390 from R Jones who also sold Swedish red steers over £1200. Jones Partners sold best heifer to a top of £1750 and others to £1740. Limmie heifers to £1610 from D R Davies with Charolais from R N Jukes looking well sold at £1600. Dairy bred blues to £1570 from J D & E Phillips with all cattle levelling out at over £1400. We go again in two weeks' time and more cattle urgently needed for a very competitive ring side of farmers and dealer buyers.
