

NEWCASTLE EMLYN LIVESTOCK MART WEEKLY REPORT – 23.01.25

4 CALVES

Calves remain a strong trade on the best and second quality with many farmers yet to fill their sheds due to current prices! Topping the sale was George, Mount with a strong Angus bull calf at £290 whilst heifers topped at £140 for a Blue from Morris, Tirgwyn. Calves wanted at Emlyn every Thursday with any entries greatly appreciated in order to notify potential buyers.

144 CULL EWES & RAMS

The ewes continue to show presence as more scanning gets done each week! Ewes possibly a touch less than what they have been but nevertheless the orders are still required with highs of £194 for strong sorts from Jones, Claibach. Another smart continental ewe sold to £190 from Wyse, Blaenwthan whilst a good run from Bowen, Wernmacwydd traded to £175. The lean ewes just as competitive around that £120-£140 mark with the hill bred and plainer sorts still looking well sold! Rams sold to £135 for a Suffolk from Evans, Penglanowen with very strong buying support each week on the ewes and rams at Emlyn!
