

NEWCASTLE EMLYN LIVESTOCK MART WEEKLY REPORT – 29.05.25

200 NEW SEASON LAMBS (343.avg /kg)

A welcomed lift in trade with the upcoming festival ensuring some security for the time being. Averages in all weight sections up 10p on the week with 34kg shapey lambs from M H Davies topping the section at 365ppk. 40kg from E B & S Jones sold next at 359ppk with 40kg from A H Davies selling at 354ppk. Plenty of demand for both tup and clean lambs with both selling as good as each other, but are better separated to achieve premiums. A L Evans & Co topped the section at £161 for 60kg Tex x Suffolk lambs with Texels from E B & S Jones selling their heaviest pen next at £160.

Plenty of life in the Emlyn trade with 400 lambs required next week please with firms needing lambs for the festival!!

191 CULL EWES

A very pleasant day's trading in the cull alleys as we certainly experience an increased demand on previous weeks! All types and sizes of ewes well sold with the best Texels to £202 from Evans, Glyn yr Odyn. Strong continental types to £199 and £189 from Islwyn, Llwyngollen whilst similar types selling at £187 from Davies, Bachyrhew. Meated Dorsets to £185 from Glover, Neuadd and shapely sorts to £184 from Davis, Pant y Gronglwyd. Endless runs over £160 with the strongest hill bred ewes up to £140 and half meated ewes trading anywhere from £100-£120 whilst the leaner sorts attracting plenty of competition for further grazing. Rams just as good to £188 for big sorts from Thomas, Llainlas with culls required each week at Emlyn, with strong buying support guaranteed!
