

NEWCASTLE EMLYN LIVESTOCK MARKET WEEKLY REPORT – 31.01.19

129 PRIME HOGGETS OV. AV. 189P/KG

Auctioneer – Llyr Jones 07812 934964

Reduced numbers this week due to the anticipation of snow. Those who did turn up were rewarded with some excellent prices. Trade was brisker with the overall average up 8p/kg on last week. RC Watkin saw top price of the day with his 43.5kg well covered hogs reaching 193p/kg. Hogs were also crossing the £90 barrier with S Thomas rewarded with a pen full up to £91.50. An excellent trade throughout with four keen buyers on all types of hogs, so get them down here!

9 IN-CALF COWS/ 3 STORES

Auctioneer – Mark Burgoyne 07831 192603

A buoyant trade on breeding cattle with a genuine dispersal from JB Davies, Blaendyffryn, attracting plenty of interest. Second calving Limousin cross cows P'd 6-7m sold to £860, with Simmental crosses to £840. All in-calf cows (herd ages) sold to average £750 showing strong returns for useful breeding stock. With the weather keeping the mart a little quiet, Rogers, Berthfedwen, was delighted with his Angus x steers achieving £635 for 16.5m. Stores are seeing a strong trade at the moment, so please contact us if you have any to sell.
